

Dame Barbara Kelly Fellow

Jacqueline Kandsberger

PhD Interdisciplinary Studies

Dumfries Campus

Biography

- Bilingual IB Diploma form Lincoln Park High School
- University of Glasgow; First Class B.Sc. (Hons) Psychology
- University of St. Andrews; M.Sc. Health Psychology with Distinction
- Research Interests:
 - Stakeholder views of health care service provision
 - Communication in health care
 - Development and use of digital health tools to improve patient experiences

Work for the Dame Barbara Kelly PhD Fellowship

- Supervised by
 - Prof David Clark, Wellcome Trust Investigator
 - Prof Craig White, Clinical Lead in the Quality and Planning Division
- The End of Life Studies team (Zaman, David, Catriona, Hamilton)
- Supportive, palliative and end of life care in Dumfries and Galloway
 - An Ageing population
 - Shorter stays in hospital and more person & community centred care

Anticipatory Care Planning (ACP)

What is it?

Why is it an interesting and important problem?

Thank you